

Step Lively! Corns Quit with "Gets-It"

The Great Corn-Loosener of the Age. Never Fails. Painless.

Watch my step? What's the use of going along "right side up" without care, even with corns, because I use "Gets-It," the painless, of-like-a-banana-peel corn remover. I tried other ways galore, until I was blue

Corns Simply Can't Stop Us, We Use "Gets-It" in the face and red in the toes. No more for me. Use "Gets-It." It never fails. Touch any corn or callus with "Gets-It," and "Gets-It" does the rest. It's a relief to be able to stop cutting and making them bleed, wrapping them up like packages and using sticky tape and salves. It removes any corn clear and clean, leaving the toe as smooth as your palm. You can wear those new shoes without pain, dance and be frisky on your feet. It's great to use "Gets-It." "Gets-It" is the guaranteed money-back-corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Write to Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Norway and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by F. P. Stone.

Farm for Sale $5500

150 acres, large roomy house, shed and carriage house, silo, barn 40 x 100 feet, built new not many years ago, all in good repair, good orchard, also sugar orchard. Cut 50 tons hay, smooth level fields, good pasture, water in buildings, estimated 1000 cords wood besides growing pine. Only 3 miles to village and R. OXFORD TELEPHONE CO.

The Public Utilities Commission have issued a decision authorizing the issuance by the West Oxford Telephone Co. of common stock amounting to $790 at par, in payment of indebtedness.

The petition shows interest bearing indebtedness of $1,022.70 and the statement from its last annual report shows such notes then amounting to $1,020.70 and accounts payable of $1,173.43. Its accounts receivable were then $871.49, and the petition does not show to what extent these may have been reduced on either side.

The interest bearing indebtedness noted is, however, shown to be in excess of the amount of stock proposed to be issued, and it may be properly capitalized to the extent of the unissued authorized capital stock, which is the amount now asked for.

BETHEL

Flag Made by Ladies of Bethel

One of the most unique advertisements for selling Liberty Bonds is displayed on the residence of Mrs. J. S. Phipps in Millville. Mrs. Phipps is town chairman of the Woman's committee of national defense.

She is the daughter of the late Col. C. S. Edwards of Bethel and the flag of his Co. tattered and torn as he brought it from "before Petersburg" is draped over the front entrance to the house with the placard "You saved me in 61-65—now buy a bond."

The flag was made by Mrs. J. S. Phipps, and presented to the Co. I, 5th Maine, of which was made up mostly from Bethel and of which C. S. Edwards was then Captain.

The following was taken from the Portland Courier in June, 1861: "This morning at 10 o'clock a very pleasant incident occurred at Camp Preble. The ladies of Bethel, some 40 in number, were on the ground with a beautiful Company flag designed for presentation to the Union Guard by Capt. Edwards of that town. After prayer by Rev. J. W. Hanson of Haverhill, Mass. The following eloquent address was delivered in a most appropriate manner by Rev. J. O. Gaines of Bethel. "Soldiers of our beloved Union, we come to you today a band of patriotic women, deeply endeavoring to represent the faithful patriotic hearts that beat among the hills of Bethel, and on the banks of the Androscoggin, where lie your homes, and live your loved ones, dear, some of us here today know full well

"But dearly as we love you, our friends, our husbands, our sons, we love the cause of freedom and our country more; for what were love without a home, what were home without the protection of our glorious Government and free institutions. Our home must be under the banner of Freedom. We thank God that we have husband and brothers and fathers and sons to send forth in our defense.

"Yes, and we send you freely, as did our Revolutionary Mothers before us, for we are assured that the noble and undying spirit of those patriotic women, has not wholly departed from their daughters.

Go forth then, and sustain our Government and her noble flag, for the nation stone whereon is built the glorious fabric of the free Government. Let it not become a stupendous failure of self government and a by-word and scorn among the nations of Europe and the world, but maintain it as the hope of the down trodden nations of the earth; and of liberty and Christianity forever.

It has been said that this government must fail—that it should fail, and ruthless hands have endeavored to fulfill the prophecy. But it shall not fail. Thank God, that there are hundreds of thousands of strong arms and brave hearts ready to defend and maintain our national Union, and Constitution.

For this cause you have quitted your homes, and grasped the sword in your country's defense. Lay it not down till you have won the right and freedom of traitors, her glorious flag restored to those wanted places which now know it not, and peace and Union once more abide under its Star Spangled folds. And now we ask you to accept from the patriotic ladies of Bethel, the glorious stars and stripes of our beloved Union. Take it to your hearts each one of you, as a symbol of the love that burns in your homes for liberty and country—and as a token of the honor, we would do our brave defenders. Go forth under its inspiration to do battle for the Right and Freedom and Humanity forgetting not to put on the armor of valor and virtue and under God's blessing you will be invincible.

At its close, Rev. Zenas Thompson of the city responded for the part of the Co. in a brief but patriotic and fervent speech, which was received by the members of the Co. with deep emotion. The Union Guards look as though they would honor the Stars and Stripes.

Every student in Gould's is a member of the Junior Red Cross. Thursday from four to five-thirty a large number of girls worked cutting gauze. They will go regularly on Mondays in the future.

WATER POWERS IN MAINE

The campaign, which the advocates of State ownership of the water powers of Maine have started, assumes:

- FIRST, That the water powers were in some way the natural heritage and property of the people.
- SECOND, That private companies have failed in undertaking to furnish light and power to the public.
- THIRD, That need for the use of coal for power and heating purposes would practically be eliminated.
- FOURTH, That the farmers of the State would be able to have their houses lighted and have power for domestic and farm uses.
- FIFTH, That manufacturing industries would multiply to the advantage of the State.
- SIXTH, That all these very desirable results would be obtained on terms advantageous to the public and at the same time profitable to the State.
- SEVENTH, That it is charged by the advocates of State ownership that the owners of the undeveloped water powers are a trust, selfishly retarding development.

The purpose of this article and of those which follow is to show that the claims of these advocates of State ownership are misleading and if not willfully deceptive are creating an impression which is false and therefore dangerous; that these claims are based either upon insufficient knowledge of the facts or regardless of the facts.

It is proposed to show:

- FIRST, That the present owners of the water powers of the State have acquired them by legitimate purchase; that many of these powers were never owned by the State; that those which

OLD BILL SAYS

If I were going to write a book about things that was not so I would devote the first chapter to safe single chimney, for there is no such thing, yet the insurance companies will pass laws not to insure buildings nearer than ten rods of each other and will insure anything that has an old chimney sticking out of it. Often they don't even see the buildings, they guess at it. If they would pass a law that all buildings should have a double chimney it would be a step in the right direction, then have an inspector to look over all chimneys we could cut down some fire losses.

I got up spunk enough the other night to go smelting. Charles Forrest invited me to go and hold the lantern and lug the fish for him, said it wouldn't cost me a cent. Of course, I was cheap in these times, so he borrowed an old leaky pair of rubber boots, size 11—I wear a bit loose from a six to a ten, eleven is a bit loose.

Charles told me it was only one mile out to the brook, but it took two hours to make it. There was one place across an old creek the water looked deep and black and fifty feet across, but there was a white maple pole six inches through at the butt laid in the croches of two trees over about six feet from the ground. We got over that by straddling the pole and hitching along.

Well, there were lots of smelts and after we had got about three bushels to lug out I began to think about that pole crossing. Oh, Charles says, we can get over that, never mind. Well, I said, I am perfectly willing for you to go ahead and show me. We had a bushel and a half of smelts in each bag. Some loaf if anyone ever sacked blue berries off Bald-face can guess pretty near how we felt when we had gone a mile. When we came to that pole I was behind with the lantern. Charles struck out pretty brave and I was afraid he would get across all right, but I swung the lantern around behind me, then I heard a groan and a splash and saw the water.

I kept quiet, then I heard a puffing and blowing and "Bub-Bub-Bill help me out." I looked out to where he was. He was flat on his back. Once in a while his head would go under. I asked him how deep it was, he was mad and then he rolled over, got on his feet and the water wasn't up to his knees so he waded ashore and I waded in and went across all right except these old boots leaked some. I was awful sorry for Charles and I told him so and he was mad and wouldn't listen to me and went right off and left me.

After he had gone I had the best laugh I have had for a long while. I promised I wouldn't tell of his getting soaked and I haven't said a word. Well, I got the word of it after all. You see Charles went home the next morning and everyone wanted some smelts, so he gave each one a mess that asked for them until he got up to Harry Hutchins' store. Hutchins wanted a mess, Charles had about a pint left and Hutchins took them, then Charles came up to my house visiting and stayed till he ate up all of mine. Next time I got smelting I am going alone and I don't intend to let anyone know when I come home.

MERRILL URGES INCREASE USE OF MAINE POTATOES

Spuds Offer Opportunity to Save Wheat for Shipment Abroad—Many People Become Total Abstiners of Wheat Products.

Orono, Maine, April—Maine's potato campaign is now in full swing and thousands of people in the State are eating and buying more potatoes, in order to save wheat for the Allies and our soldiers fighting in France.

This campaign is being conducted under the direction of the Federal Food Administrator, Leon S. Merrill with the hearty cooperation of newspapers, retail stores, women's clubs, schools, churches, commercial bodies, fraternal organizations, theatres and speakers.

"The best thing we can offer the people to help the country save wheat is potatoes," says Food Administrator Merrill. "Potatoes are an acceptable substitute for bread. Ireland has been saved from starvation time and again by the potato. Americans are already familiar with this valuable tuber and can increase their use of the potato with little trouble and almost no sacrifice of appetite, certainly no sacrifice of nutritive value."

When the consumer buys his food-stuffs for cash and carries them home himself, he saves from 2 to 10 per cent of the cost of most staple commodities except tea, where there is a difference of 15 per cent. This general conclusion is reached from a nationwide study of the difference between "cash and carry" and "credit and delivery" prices made by the U. S. Food Administration.

The delivery of food supplies, which is a general custom among retailers, involves a service that is necessarily expensive. On certain commodities, however, the difference is very small. The smallest differences indicated are for sugar, 0.1 cent per pound and corn meal, 0.2 cent per pound and milk, 0.3 cent per quart.

Preach and Practice. The effect of war gardens in providing food, saving labor and relieving the railroads cannot be overestimated. Three of the important factors in this war are Food, Labor and Transportation. The war garden helps solve all three.

Dr. Alonzo Taylor of the Food Administration, speaking from accurate knowledge, declares, "It is no exaggeration to say that the war gardens in Europe have in the case of Germany, for instance, pulled her through two summers and that she would probably not have been able to pull through if it had not been for her war gardens. In the largest cities of Germany, for instance, pulled her through two summers and that she would probably not have been able to pull through if it had not been for her war gardens. In the largest cities of Germany, for instance, pulled her through two summers and that she would probably not have been able to pull through if it had not been for her war gardens."

The Duty of Those at Home to the Men on the Firing Line

Fac-simile sheet of the appeal of Secretary M. Adoo in behalf of the Third Liberty Loan

We must support our gallant sailors and soldiers. We must make them swift victors in their fight with the Kaiser for we can do it if we at home do our duty with the same quality of patriotism that animates our men in the trenches. The least duty we can perform—and we should be eager and happy to perform it—is to lend our money, every available dollar we have and can save, to our Government's note, that our gallant sons may be supplied with all they need to save America. No true patriot will fail to buy United States Liberty Bonds.

Prof. Ozias Whitman at his home in Red Wing, Minnesota, April 29, 1918. He was the youngest son of Joshua and Catherine (Davie) Whitman and was born in Buckfield September 13, 1831. He was a descendant of John Whitman, the English ancestor who settled at Weymouth, Mass., about 1635, and was the first dean of the first church there and the first military officer and first civil magistrate, also his paternal grandfather was Jacob Whitman, the Revolutionary soldier and Minute Man and his grandmother, Abigail (Packard) Whitman, for whom the D. A. R. Chapter of Norway was named.

Mr. Whitman was early a teacher of note in the common and village schools, and he was a member of the Maine State Normal School at Bangor, Me., from 1852 to 1856. After that he taught in the academies of the State at Norway, Eastport and other places and in his time was famous as an instructor. He married Norway, where for many years was her husband's principal assistant. They moved to Red Wing many years ago, which has since been their home. Through the influence of Hon. Mark H. Dunnell, once the principal of Norway Liberal Institute and Colonel of the 5th Maine Inf. in the Civil War, Mr. Whitman came from Minnesota, Mr. Whitman received an appointment to a position in the Weather Bureau Service, which he held to the time of his death.

He was a first degree Mason, was prominent in the Knickerbocker Club and at one time held the highest office in that order.

His wife survives him and a sister, Mrs. Dora P. Hay of Lynn, Mass.

Funeral services will be held at Norway for interment in Rustfield Cemetery.

High School Notes

In the Liberty Loan parade held on Friday evening, the high school was well represented by attractive floats, squads of boy scouts and red cross nurses, and a high school service flag was carried by girls whose brothers are in the service, many of whom were students in N. H. S.

The senior class of the high school presented a parade which was planned and worked out by Ruth Akers '18 and Adele DeCoster '18.

Norway High School has purchased a Liberty Bond which will be subscribed to by individual students.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 1, the students of the high school under the direction of Miss Marguerite Longue held a Junior Four Minute Men Liberty Contest. Similar contests are being held all over the county under the auspices of the government, which has been given the work from the National Capitol. A speech was well delivered and showed careful work on the part of the student.

This task of selecting the best individual speaker was very difficult for the judges on account of the excellence of their decision, was as follows: Orin Stone '20, first and Arthur Bartlett '18, Marietta-Nichols '18 and Marion Welch '21 honorable mention.

The names of the winner will be entered at Washington and he will be presented with a certificate signed by Federal authorities and the principal of Norway High School.

The Junior Four Minute Men Liberty Contest speakers were: Marian Welch '21, Ullene Bennett '21, Marion Downing '21, Nora Hascall '21, Roland Andrews '21, Irene Drowell '20, Emogene Sanborn '21, Charles Cummings '21, Thelma Grover '20, Alice Bartlett '21, Minnie Watson '20, Orin Stone '20, Arthur DeCoster '18, Marietta-Nichols '18, Bradlee Willis '19, Elva Perry '18, Roland McCormack '18, Gretchen Eisenwinter '21, Arthur Bartlett '18. The judges were Rev. H. L. Nichols, Mrs. Irving Brown and Frank Kimball.

Gould Academy 9, Norway High 1. Gould Academy defeated Norway High in a featureless game on the fair grounds Saturday afternoon, the score being 9 to 1. It was only a try out for Norway as the team is not organized as yet.

Recruits were given a chance to display their goods in the various positions. Many errors contributed largely to Norway's defeat and the team is far from being a smooth working unit. Under good coaching during the past week, the players have displayed an ability to grasp the base ball idea with surprising speed and in the future better results may be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chick recently received a letter from their son, Howard Chick, of the 64th Artillery, Somewhere in France, stating that he was feeling fine, that the flowers were in bloom and the potatoes from five to six inches high.

Pvt. Samuel Klain, Me. Med. Dept. C. A. C. arrived Wednesday evening and has been allowed a thirty days' furlough from Fort Levee to help his father, Morris Klain, with the planting of Mr. Klain has a large acreage and unable to secure competent farm help. Pvt. Klain was his father's right hand man before he enlisted and this help will lift a great burden at this busy season.

Direct From Washington, D. C.
G. Ralph Harriman received the following telegram from Washington, D. C., dated May 1st: "Notify all speakers to make this proposition to all audiences. President Wilson realizing vital necessity of increasing number and size of individual subscriptions says he has already bought to limit, but offers to buy one more fifty dollar bond installment plan rate of thirty-four cents daily and asks how many in all American audiences will match him for new or additional subscriptions, his offer being made simultaneously to every meeting in America. Just as if he were present. Have all speakers pound this hard at every meeting and secure subscriptions."

Universalist S. S. Service Flag
Exercises for the Universalist Sunday School Service Flag will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday, May 5. Special music will be furnished by a chorus of young people from the Sunday School and there will be other exercises appropriate to the occasion. If there are any names which should be added to the honor list below, please hand them to W. Mafor Mann or Mrs. Alice R. Danforth. Stars for the following have been placed on the flag: Hugh Bethell, Robert L. Brooks, Linwood E. Fogg, Guy E. Harriman, Ernest Floyd Haskell, Theodore R. Hunt, Jacob A. Klain, Peter Klain, Albert Rupert Mixer, Max G. Noyes, George Sanderson, Alton Whitehead.

Returned From Sunny South
F. H. Noyes returned from the South May 1st and he says it seems as though he had come into the Fall of the year instead of spring time. When he left Florida they were digging potatoes and harvesting other crops and put on his heavy underwear and clothing and see the trees bare of foliage makes him think of autumn and a coming winter instead of roses and apple blossoms.

He stayed 77 days in a private family at St. Augustine and wore a straw hat, his summer clothes and looked for a shady place from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. The nights were reasonably cool and he slept well and worked at 8:30 in the morning and breakfast in the garden a good deal. He planted potatoes, hoed and harvested them while there.

Mr. Noyes stopped some ten days at Jacksonville, Fla., and two days on his way back at Southern Pines, N. C. He has been away from Norway since Jan. 10, in Boston he met Frank Spinnery, son of Benj. F. Spinnery of Lynn, who reports his father to be in good physical condition at 86 years. He also met C. D. Waters of Montpelier, Vt., who has charge of a certain New England district of troop transportation and is a busy man. He is planning on coming to Norway to see his old friends and associates.

Did you see Tim go down street with the street sprinkler? It is hitched to gasoline. Some show anyhow!

Mrs. George L. Curtis entertained nine tables at progressive whist Tuesday evening which was a benefit for the Red Cross Chapter. Mrs. N. E. Carroll, Mrs. H. L. Bartlett and Mrs. D. M. French won the prizes.

Two boys of the "smart age" with horse and carriage, came within an ace of running over one of our "silent policemen." They thought it a huge joke.

The Norway street sprinkler was out Thursday, painted red and auto mounted, —Tim Heath, the driver. It is a fine looking outfit.

If you have local news, tell our correspondents. There is one who lives near you if you get, not one to represent this paper. We want all the home news.

Orin L. Stone is expected to be the four minute speaker at Rex Theatre this Thursday evening.

According to the latest ruling at Washington soldiers' mail overseas must have "American" in the A. E. F. abbreviation spelled in full, so that the reading will be "American E. F."

Edith Watson is rooming at Mrs. Frank Cox's.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Leavitt of Rumford are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Leavitt. Mr. Leavitt, who has had the grip is convalescent.

The adjourned Democratic County committee meeting was held at Beals Tavern, Saturday with a good attendance. G. A. Thurston of Bethel presided. The speakers of the day were Judge Matthew McCarthy of Rumford and Hon. Bertrand G. McIntire of Norway, who spoke on the outlook of the coming campaign, outlining plans for the work to be done. A general discussion followed.

There are oceans of work to be done by the Red Cross. Are you doing your part? Miss Stella Prince can tell you about it. Don't be bashful about inquiring and helping.

Certainly we want to do that job of printing. Will do it promptly and in good shape and as cheaply as anyone can in these troublous times.

Roland Andrews has a row boat nearly completed which is 13 feet long and about 21-2 feet amidehip. It is made from his own design and original ideas have been worked into the construction. The craft is built for general utility only and he will launch it in the lake after a trial has been given in the bog. Roland has done the work during spare time, but the Boy Scouts to which he belongs will profit by his energy during the coming season.

The Carroll, Jellerson Shoe Co. are justly proud of the Liberty Bond record made in the factory on Friday. One hundred and one bonds were sold which totaled $7,000 from a list of about 350 employees. Many departments went better than seventy-five per cent. of their working force.

Ruth Carroll is visiting a few days at Sanford.

Don't be the allotment. You must take bonds or have bonds forced upon you. National bank will be open up to 9 p. m. Saturday night to receive your subscriptions. Here is a chance for those few who haven't come across and helped.

John Fletcher and Alfred W. Ramsdell

enjoyed an auto trip to Poland Spring, Sunday.

Ben and Henry Hosmer launched their sport boat "The Scout" in Lake Pennesseewassee Tuesday evening. The craft is 16 feet long with 4 foot beam. It is on the hydroplane model. A 22 1-2 H. P. engine develops speed of 20 miles per hour by practical test. This is not only the fastest boat on the lake but is in every particular the most work of the Hosmer Brothers, who built the speedy boat during spare time.

The Ball for the benefit of the Red Cross of Norway and the Service League of South Paris will be held at the Norway Opera House, Tuesday evening, May 7. Shaw's Orchestra of South Paris of nineteen pieces have given their services for the occasion. The use of the hall has also been given, so receipts will be wholly devoted to Red Cross work.

Sunday Norway Lodge No. 161 I. O. O. F. and Mrs. Hope Rebekah Lodge attended services at the Methodist church in observance of the 99th anniversary. A large delegation from the orders was in attendance. Rev. H. L. Nichols delivered the anniversary sermon taking for his text Matthew, 22:21 "Render therefore unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." His subject was "Patriotism and Religion." He told of the origin and growth of the order and what it stands for, in an interesting and instructive manner.

The first electrical shower for the season passed over the town about 2:30 Wednesday morning. Considerable rain fell, which continued nearly all day.

Alrie M. Green, drives the Paris Bakery team. He came from Bridgton to South Paris with Wilson Walker some 8 or 9 years ago. He worked for Mr. Walker four years in Bridgton or all told about a dozen years.

Flora Young, daughter of Mrs. Samuel H. Young, who has been ill during the past two weeks, is more comfortable and a complete recovery is expected.

NO TIME FOR NEGLECT
With the opening of spring the attention of our people is becoming focused upon the problem of producing another year's food supply. This is a gigantic task and to it must be stout hearts and willing hands. But this our people will do. Americans are not slackers.

But many centuries ago a teacher said that "man shall not live by bread alone." While it may not be exactly in the sense in which he meant it, we wish to remind our readers that there is not all of life. Much of life consists in environment. When this is congenial, the life is likely to be filled with sunshine and contentment. With uncongenial surroundings, life at best is unsatisfactory.

With due regard for the many pressing duties of the hour, there yet should be found time to devote to the things that surely matter of life. Beauty of surroundings cannot be neglected if we are to avoid sinking into a state of lethargy.

So while striving to win this war for freedom let us have no more of the atmosphere of gross materialism. Let us still keep an eye for the beautiful in nature and art. Let us strive to keep the home life, the neighborhood life, the city life pitched upon a high plane. Let us resolve that we will not surrender a single gleam of life, but that we will make life worth living and fighting for.

We must not neglect our town. It must be kept up to the highest standard. Its institutions must be sustained. It must be kept clean and sanitary and beautiful. It must be kept worthy to be the abiding place of our children for whom we have labored and sacrificed.

Win-the-War Whist and Win-the-War Dance are the latest fads. But the war, if ever won, must be done by men and guns.

A chauffeur can have work, see page 12. Also several tenements to let with and without gardens.

South Paris

Mrs. Nellie A. Cobb died Saturday, April 27, at her residence on Gothic street, South Paris, at the age of 53 years. Mrs. Cobb was the daughter of A. Hanson and Lizzie (Wheeler) Daves, and was born in Harrison. She married Lyman H. Cobb, an inventor, and for years an inspector in the Iver Johnson works at Fitchburg, Mass. They had one son, who died when several years into a partnership died last October, and was buried in Harrison. Mrs. Cobb was at South Paris during the winter months with her sister, Mrs. John S. Blair, and about the first of March began housekeeping by herself in the room of J. H. Blake on Gothic street. She is survived by her father, who is residing in Norway, two sisters, Mrs. John S. Blair of South Paris and Mrs. George Flint, formerly of Harrison, but now of Norway, and two brothers, John M. Daves of Everett, Mass., and Leman Daves of Harrison. The funeral was held at the residence at 2 o'clock, Tuesday, attended by Rev. G. H. Newton of the Baptist church. The remains were taken to Harrison for burial.

George B. Crockett

Dea. George B. Crockett of South Paris, secretary of the Paris Manufacturing Co., and a prominent member and worker in the Baptist denomination, passed away early Wednesday evening after an illness which extended over a considerable period.

Mr. Crockett was born in Buckfield, 71 years ago on March 29, 1847, the son of Morton and Prudence (Bates) Crockett and grandson of John Crockett, a soldier in the Revolutionary war of 1812. He was educated in the schools at Buckfield and Paris, but when eighteen years old he commenced sledmaking with H. P. Morton at West Sumner. Later he became more intimately associated with the business into a partnership with Morton under the name, Morton, Forbes & Crockett, which has developed into the Paris Manufacturing company, the largest plant of its kind in the country.

Mr. Crockett married Mary H. Forbes on Sept. 11, 1869, daughter of Elbridge and Julia (Preston) Forbes. They resided a short time in West Sumner, but the remainder of their life has been closely associated with the business, religious and social affairs of Paris Hill and South Paris village.

He was a Republican, a member of Mt. Mica Lodge of Odd Fellows and Mt. Pleasant Lodge of Rebekahs. His earnest work in the Baptist denomination is well known for he was a familiar figure at the gatherings and conventions of the churches. He has served faithfully as deacon of the South Paris Baptist church for nearly thirty years and will be greatly missed in its business councils.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Mabel A. Record, Mrs. Lulla E. Fairbanks of Abington, Mass., and Ethel E. Crockett, a teacher in the South Paris schools. The three sons are Prentiss F. Crockett, Ernest P. Crockett, the florist and Leon E. Crockett, all of South Paris.

The services will be held at the Baptist church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. G. H. Newton.

Mrs. Leander S. Billings

Mrs. Flora Anna, wife of Leander S. Billings died at South Paris, Sunday, Tuesday, April 30, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, after being ill with pneumonia two weeks. She was the daughter of the late Arba and Florilla (Tuttle) Thayer and a twin sister of the late Frank A. Thayer, who died 23 years ago. She was the only surviving member of a family of five children, her age being 71. She was a constant attendant of the Universalist church, where she will be greatly missed. Her husband, Leander S. Billings and niece, Grace Thayer, are the only near relatives who survive.

Addison F. Bowker

Addison F. Bowker, a native of Frankfort, Maine, born April 10, 1830, died from gripe and general break down Thursday, April 23, at the home of Albert Durrell, South Paris, who resides near St. Catherine Catholic Church. His age was 87 years, 8 months and 15 days. He resided in South Paris for many years, but came from Greenwood some two years ago. The deceased is survived by an aged widow who is in feeble health. Rev. H. L. Nichols conducted the services at the home Friday and the remains were taken to West Sumner for burial.

Mrs. Harry D. Cole and Mrs. Ernest F. Shaw entertained five tables at room at Mrs. Cole's home Tuesday evening. The four dollars received was given to the Service League.

A little drama "What a Good Night" was played here Saturday night by the school children and was well attended. After the play they served refreshments of sandwiches, cake and cocoa. Music was furnished on a Graphophone for dancing. They cleared $15.10 and gave one-half of the proceeds to the Red Cross. It was very kind of the teachers, Miss Hunt and Miss Millett, and we appreciate the good cause.

A number of the children have the Liberty medals.

Mrs. Catherine Grover has gone to her home where she intends to spend the summer and we are all glad to welcome her back again.

"BLOOD AND IRON"

A Combination That Makes for Better Health This Spring.

Every man and woman who would enjoy good health this Spring, and would have such life and strength as not to be a slacker, but equal to anything, must have an abundance of iron in the blood.

The new iron tonic, Peptonin, combines this valuable metal in medicinal form so that it is easily absorbed and readily assimilated.

Peptonin also includes pepsin, nux, cefery, gentian and other tonics, nerve helps, digestives and carminatives—a health-giving medicine in the form of chocolate-coated pills, convenient and pleasant to take.

It has given entire satisfaction in the treatment of anemia or thin blood, pale, nervous, neurasthenia, nerve debility, brain-fag. One or two Peptonin after each meal will quickly tell a story of marvellous results.

Peptonin is prepared by its originators, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass., in one of the best-equipped laboratories in the world. Get it today.

Farming for Profits

The year 1918, more than any previous year, marks the progressive farmer's harvest season from his soil. The world is clamoring for his products.

If you would reach the top notch in production you should provide your force with

The Latest and Best in Labor-Saving Machinery

We have the implements to easily DOUBLE your producing capacity.

Why be content with a scant profit when you have the opportunity to clean up a large one, and at the same time help your country in the big drive?

Come in and see our splendid line and get our very liberal terms to responsible parties.

Get into the class of moderns and move on with the procession. You can't afford to be left behind as you will surely be if you cling to the old methods.

The United States Food
Administration Says

Plant a Victory Garden

If you love your native land, put fertilizer on it and seeds into it.

The man with an empty back lot ought not to be permitted to fly Old Glory from the front steps.

We don't want any amateur landscape gardeners this year—we want men of all types to get out and turn over the soil and plant beans, corn, peas, cabbages and tomatoes.

In the name of those boys with the colors, plant a garden.

The care of those gardens must be followed through. Weeds that cut production are pro-German.

Plant a garden and make the other fellow plant one.

We are Headquarters for Fertilizers, Seeds, Garden Tools, Insecticides, and everything for the garden.

CASCO

New Power Boat

Geo. T. Taylor of Casco village is making a power boat that will attract visitors from all sections of Maine as it is distinctly a Maine product. All the wood work is made of Maine oak and the timbers bent by hand and beautifully finished. The boat is 35 feet long with nine foot beam and a six foot hole. All oak with copper fastenings.

The model is after the Compound U. S. Light Tender with speed of 17 minutes an hour. Can be used by the United States Government for coast patrol. The stern and transom is fastened with boat nails of galvanized iron with the chisel points. A twenty-two inch dead wood composes the rim. The stern is bolted to keel with six bolts, one of them sixteen inches, the others being twelve inches of 3/4 inch iron. The keel is five by seven inch dead wood white oak shaft log of same, all of white oak. The planking is grey oak. The engine is a Hartford, 25-horse power and the gasoline tank is to hold 100 gallons.

The emergency power will be 55 yards of canvas. Another 300 pounds, 50 fathoms of 5-8 cable. Mean draft when loaded with cargo 3 feet aft 2 feet, 10 inches forward. Carrying capacity 17 tons and seats 75 passengers.

The cabin is to contain four bunks with cook stove, sink, closet and toilet. The whole is to be painted white, but the name "Nonconform." It will carry an American flag and hail from Casco.

ALBANY

James L. Gould, who has been visiting, cutting wood and filing saws, here at the Corner, started for Lewiston, Tuesday, April 23. He will return to Albany next week and be here at Herbert Bean's auction. He has some hard wood floors to lay. Last summer he worked in Connecticut at his trade.

The roads are getting quite dry. The season is one week earlier than it was last year at this time.

D. A. Cummings packed Wm. Grover's apples last week and shipped them to New Hampshire. George Cummings has hired the Pine Hill pasture this season, formerly owned by Guy Dexter Cummings. William Grover is going to move to the house at Bethel on the William Chapman farm.

Mrs. Harry McNally has been on the sick list for over a week, but is improving.

Our road commissioners have commenced to work on the road. We have raised about twice as much money this year to use on the road and if the town would only call another town meeting and vote to discontinue ten old roads in town that are not used much only by the fishermen in summer and the hunters in the fall. If the town thinks it is better to keep these old roads in repair on purpose to accommodate the fishermen in summer and the deer hunters in the fall, then it would be well to call another town meeting and try and get from 6 to 10 miles of these old roads discontinued and save the town from paying big damages and spend all of the money on the more traveled roads, so the city or village people would like to buy a good farm in Albany when they can find some good roads and move into a town where the town has money in the bank, instead of moving into a town that is owing a big debt.

Herbert Bean, who was a contractor in Lewiston, sold out his business there four years ago this spring and moved into Albany, his native home, and built a new store and has had a good trade. His son, who used to help him in the store, enlisted and went to war one year ago this spring so it made it pretty hard work for Mr. Bean to carry on his farm and tend store alone, so he had an auction Tuesday, April 30.

Liberty Day Program

Friday evening at the hall a Liberty Day program was given. The first speaker, Harry E. Dyer of Hanover, was introduced by Chairman Arthur Stowell. Mr. Dyer gave a very stirring address on "Our Flag." After his address Arthur Stowell then unfurled our honor flag with its one star which we earned by doubling our quota. He then introduced Mr. Jack, Chairman of the State Board of Trade, who said in part, that he was pleased with the opportunity to speak to us and that no one with Anglo-Saxon blood in their veins could be downed. Much applause greeted both of these able speakers. After the speeches dancing was enjoyed by all. Cake and coffee was served at intermission. A goodly sum was taken for the Red Cross. Much credit due A. R. Stowell for his untiring efforts.

C. E. Stowell was in South Paris Thursday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Emily Cook.

J. B. Scribner, who has served on the jury of the Superior Court, returned from Portland, Friday.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Scribner, Wednesday afternoon. The old officers were re-elected. Two new members were received. The cycle teas will be resumed later when work is not so rushing. Several members have paid into the treasury a sum equivalent to that earned by the hostesses of the teas, making a tidy sum in all.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Lilla Skillings, Thursday afternoon. The same officers as last year were re-elected.

The members of the grange enjoyed a fine and varied program at their last regular meeting. Each member was invited to contribute to the program and as nearly all responded it gave a unique entertainment. Numbers especially noticeable were: Song, by Mrs. Fannie Small, original verses by Lizzie Edwards, song, "Canning the Kaiser," by A. W. Weston; a comic song in costume by Mrs. Barle Warren, and a talk by Mrs. Winifred Walker concerning work for the government at Lynn, Mass., where she is forelady in a room of a large factory. The next meeting is anticipated with great interest. All will dress in working clothes and other unusual dress accessories, there will be refreshments and other features of merit.

EARLY IMPRESSIONS INTERESTINGLY TOLD

This story was written by L. P. Evans, editor of the Piscataquis Observer and was published in that paper. It is so everyday commonplace, true to life and has to do with Oxford County people we reprint. The count with the good stepping horse undoubtedly was the late Dr. Calvin E. Evans of this town.—Editor.

The first journey I ever took so far as I know was from Brownville, my birthplace, to Harmony where my father went to practice medicine and when I was two years old. I presume I had been previously taken to the home of my mother's people in Atkinson, but of that I have no definite knowledge. Neither have I any definite recollection of the trip to Harmony but I have been told that I gave voice on the way to my indignation at being carried from Piscataquis to Somerset county.

The family moved from Harmony to Garland when I was seven years old. It is strange that I do not recall any incident of that journey, but the only thing I remember is that as we came into Garland village I saw some boys in a doorway playing with a wheelbarrow. They had the vehicle upside down and by winding a rope around the axle of the wheel and drawing it out quickly the wheel revolved rapidly. That appealed to me and I tried it on the first opportunity and many times afterwards.

I came to Dover with my parents sometime after that and an incident occurred of which I have no recollection but of which my mother retained a very vivid one. We were visiting at Dr. Benjamin Johnson's, now the Peaks home, and while there I discovered a row of doors down which I hastened to slide. Unfortunately, however, the door had been freshly painted and the result was very disastrous to my best trousers. I can well imagine my mother's feelings for in those days the mother had to make the boys' clothes, at least, they could not be bought in the country ready made, nor was cleansing fluid common.

My mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Foster, lived in Atkinson on the farm later owned by Andrew B. Merrill and now, I think, by Mr. Ober, and we went there for a visit each summer when I was small. I recall those visits with mixed feelings because they were both pleasant and unpleasant. Among the pleasant things was the abundance of milk and other articles of farm food, including corned lamb of which I was very fond.

Among the unpleasant things were the mosquitoes, which were very numerous, and the lack of boys to play with. As I write this sentence I am reminded of the foolish fellow who when enumerating his ill told me that he had rather have one catarrh than seven fevers, any time. And so I would rather had one boy than seven mosquitoes any time. I got so homesick for boys during one visit that I threatened to walk home if they didn't carry me.

I recall that during one visit there my sister and I played store in the yard, our stock in trade being burdock leaves and other vegetable matter. I thought then that I should be a merchant when I became a man, later I decided to be a businessman and still later, a farmer, but finally got into store life. And I have never lost my love for merchandising. A load of goods going to a country store, or even a country store itself, revives that love as the sight of liquor or tobacco revives the love a man may have for them.

When I was about 14 years old my father and I went to Oxford county by team. We went by way of Skowhegan and Norridgewock to leave Uncle Nelson Wiley at Norridgewock where he was to make his home with a daughter. The old gentleman was an uncle to James S. Wiley of Dover and they had some peculiarities in common. He had lived in my home several years and one of his habits was to kick back after he had finished a meal and watch me satisfy my boyish appetite.

The journey of which I speak was made in June and was one of the most enjoyable I ever took. I do not recall how long we were on the road, but I judge about three days. We would get out early in the morning to drive while it was cool and lay by in the heat of the day.

There was a big hill near an uncle's home in Sweden which glittered so brightly in the sun that I thought it was largely silver and was disappointed to know that it was mica instead of silver that showed so brightly.

Another incident of the visit in Sweden has remained in my mind. A boy who lived in my uncle's family proposed that we go fishing. I agreed gladly, but when we started I noticed where the angleworms were. He didn't know what I meant, and then I discovered that there were no angleworms in that country and fishermen had to depend on worms that they found in the brooks wearing a sort of coat of mail. I thought that was a pretty poor country.

It was certainly a hilly country especially between Norway and Sweden. When we went from Norway to Sweden on our way up I took my cousin's wife and my team and my father rode with the cousin, who was also a doctor. My cousin drove a pair of horses one of which could trot a mile in three minutes and the other could keep up by running. He drove his team down the steep hills at top speed and although my father had been brought up in that country and was used to the hills, he was glad when he reached Sweden. On another occasion my father went to Sweden with a horse that he drove over the Garland hills and when they came to one of the steep hills of that town the animal stopped, evidently thinking it dangerous to go down it.

Our return to Garland was made by way of Lewiston. As that was 50 years ago, my recollection of the trip is not very vivid, but I am quite sure that we made a call in Poland on Zadock Waterhouse with whom my father had boarded at one time while living in Brownville.

I will mention in passing an experience that Mr. Waterhouse had while my father was in his family. In the days of the country doctor had to manufacture some of his remedies and on one occasion my father made some hive syrup. In some way Mr. Waterhouse got a taste of it and as it was sweet, he took several tastes in spite of my father's warning that it would make him sick. He soon discovered that the doctor was no false prophet and that hive syrup in large doses won't remain in the stomach nor allow anything else to remain there.

We took dinner with a family friend in Lewiston where an incident occurred that I have never forgotten. The man's son and I went out on the street and he persuaded me to part with some of my candy store of cash for pickled limes. I had never eaten any before, nor have I since, and I promptly decided on the first taste that a fool and his money are soon parted.

I recall but one other feature of the return journey. Oxford county is a country of pines and the cedar does not grow there. I had been from home long enough to be anxious to get back and when we came where cedars were growing I felt that we were in God's country again and were nearing home.

I have a few other little journeys to tell of but will save them for another time.

NORTH WATERFORD

Albany Line

The Poverty Social and Grange Spasm have not been cancelled or postponed. There will be a baked bean supper with dancing, etc., with prize for most poverty stricken attire. Enough fun to call Saturday evening, May 4th, at North Waterford, "Carnival Night."

Mrs. Ernest Brown carried two porcupines to Linwood Flint of Porcupine Farm Saturday. Mr. Flint is again doing a good business in the animal line. He has quite a number on hand. He takes them. It gives the boys a chance to carry a little pocket money and puts a good many dollars in other hands beside. It is said that one man sold enough porcupines in the spring to buy a good cow.

John and David McAllister went smelting in Boucham, Monday.

The spool mill at North Waterford is a sure thing. They are getting the ground ready near Harry Brown's steam mill. It will help to boom North Waterford and a great help to the whole community.

Leopold Kimball has bought a pair of horses of Fred Littlefield, gray ones. Jennie Brown is ill with the gripe.

A number are sick with the measles. Glendon Patterson is working for E. B. Hersey.

Herman Holt recently purchased a pair of fine horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McIntire and two children visited Mrs. McIntire's sister, Flora Lewis, and other relatives here Saturday and Sunday. They brought Luella Lord and mother to this place visiting in their auto, and carried them back Sunday.

Lafayette Waterhouse and daughter Edith of Norway visited his brother Leonard, Tuesday, who has been sick with pneumonia the past few weeks, but is on the gain at present.

Wm. Flak went to North Bridgton Saturday and his wife accompanied him as far as her brother's in South Waterford, where she spent the day with her mother, Mrs. S. Green.

Horace Green had the misfortune to drop a plank onto his hand, crushing his right fore finger badly. He visited his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Green in South Waterford, one day last week.

Luella Lord, who is at work for Clayton McIntire of "Green Fields," East Waterford, visited her father, Roy Lord, Sunday. Mr. Lord is going to pasture a flock of sheep for Roy Thurston of Bethel this summer.

School Entertainment

There was an entertainment given at the I. O. O. F. Hall Saturday evening by the North Waterford Grammar School. A fine entertainment was given. Among the features was a drama with the following cast:

Mr. Wickerwork Lowell Hensley
Miss Prune Gwendolyn Lord
Miss Bush Theodore Brown
Miss Cough Roy Lord
Miss Bush Helen Lord
Miss Keller Myron Lord
Miss Keller Guy Patterson

They sold sandwiches, cake and crackers. The entertainment was given for the Red Cross and school. Half to the Red Cross. A dance afterward. Eighteen dollars was received. A large crowd in attendance.

Pearl Weymouth helped Roy Wardwell Monday, sawing wood at the Four Corners for Riley McKeen.

Smelts are running very plentiful now. Walter Lord was in East Stoneham last week putting water into his buildings there, now occupied by Mrs. Emma Brown.

Pearl Weymouth has sold his farm he recently purchased of Mrs. E. K. Shedd to Ingalls McAllister of Bethel, Mr. McAllister will move into his new home Saturday. He has a wife and two children. Mr. Weymouth has purchased Bert Patterson's place on Sawin Hill. He has the "Cage, now where is the pretty little bird?"

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Ella Robinson of Hartford and Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Damon of Buckfield were at Alton Damon's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett were Sunday guests at P. M. Bennett's.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Briggs were at Roy Briggs' in Summer, Sunday.

John Flagg is failing. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Stearns of Paris came over to see him, Sunday.

Dorothy Buck was at home for the week end.

Paul Turner and Lawrence Morse came home from Bath Saturday night and returned to their work, Monday.

Carl Heald has traded with H. W. Phillips for the gray mare.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Heald and children of North Buckfield called on Mrs. Harry Buswell, Friday.

S. E. Annis of Hartford called at H. H. Buck's, Monday.

DENMARK

George Richardson of East Denmark is building a camp near the home of Chas. Pingree, as he is working for Mr. Pingree.

Bernard Potter went to Portland Saturday to see his son Rufus, who is still in the hospital.

Earl Shaw has been home on a visit with his wife and friends previous to his departure for France.

Mr. and Mrs. Greely True who are on the Fred Sanborn farm are on a visit to friends and relatives in Springvale, Portland and Bangor.

Mr. Johnson of Brownfield was in town with his movies recently, for the first time this season. Flint's Orchestra furnished music for the dance, the same as last season.

Lawson Lewis of South Limington who has been working for C. E. Cobb, expects to start soon for training camp.

Irving Trumbull spent Monday night at Henry Blake's at the Blake House, East Sebago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wentworth spent Thursday afternoon in Brownfield to visit her little grandson, Roland Blake.

Edward Buck, who has been taking lessons on the cornet of Frank Cash of Bridgton the past year, has improved so he is able to play in Ingalls' Orchestra for the Saturday evening dances.

EAST OTISFIELD

Wallace Stone recently purchased another gray horse, making him a pair of grays for farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greenleaf of Crystal, N. H., have moved their household goods to Mrs. C. E. Holden's on Ball Hill and will reside there for the present.

Ernest Wardwell lately purchased two sheep of parties in Sebatus. Mr. Wardwell is also extensively engaged in bee culture, having some less than twenty hives of bees.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Greenleaf and three children were week-end guests of their parents at Broad View Farm. Master Henry remained with his grandparents.

Wallace Stone takes the scholars from Wardwell district to the Gore school and Winfield Reed takes them from Holden-

The Fuel Administration authorizes us to say that it considers the use of oil cook stoves and oil heaters at this time a very important help in the necessary conservation of coal for war purposes.

Heroes and Heroines

Behind the man behind the gun is the woman who stands over the stove. Her battlefield is the kitchen.

To her the New Perfection Oil Cook Stove means all-year comfort and convenience, but more especially so through the hot summer months. And it helps to win by saving coal—a vital need of the nation.

The New Perfection lights instantly. No soot, no ashes. With the Long Blue Chimney, the flame stays set, high or low, without attention. Roasts, toasts, broils, bakes. Used in more than 3,000,000 homes.

Ask your dealer for booklet, and ask, too, about the New Perfection Ovens. None better.

For hot water use the New Perfection Kerosene Water Heater.

SO-CO-NY Kerosene
gives best results.

OXFORD

Patriotic Meeting

A very enthusiastic patriotic meeting was held in Sons of Temperance Hall Friday evening. There was an exercise by the school children, Building the Flag, which was very pretty and done in fine shape. They gave the Flag salute, then followed recitations and singing by the high school girls "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "America," "The Star Spangled Banner" and the Liberty Loan song, "Over Here." Mrs. Farris gave a statement of the work done by the Red Cross in this community. Nearly $900 have been raised and expended in the past ten months.

A beautiful new honor roll, the property of Freeland Holmes library was on exhibition for the first time. The roll contains the following names, Maj. H. R. Parris, Sergt. Joseph Hunting, Sergt. Lester Witham, Sergt. Edgar Andrews, Sergt. Guy Walker, Corp. William Downing, Corp. Harry Twitchell, Corp. Eddie Bressett, Corp. Frank Titus, Pvt. Everett Cook, Langan, Ellsworth, James Kay, Albert Palmer, Albert Thompson, Scott Palmer. A generous sum was given for a service flag.

Having raised more than was asked, a Liberty Loan Flag was presented to the town. Dr. Holden and Arthur Walker made speeches for Thrift and War Savings Stamps. A. J. Holden told them he did not think they need send out of town for speakers for Memorial Day for we had them at home.

The W. R. C. entertain the Veterans next Saturday p. m. in their Corps room. All veterans are expected to be present, also all W. R. C. members.

Mothers' Day May 12, will be observed in the Methodist Church by a sermon for the occasion.

Rev. Kendall Burge and Rev. Mr. Wood, both students at Bates, walked from Mechanic Falls and back Sunday in order to attend the evening meetings. The meetings were enjoyed by all who went.

District Superintendent D. B. Holt will be here Tuesday evening, May 7, and will preach in the vestry. After the service he will hold the first quarterly conference of the year.

The Red Cross dinner last Thursday was a success, making $36.00.

Effie Towne spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Etta Towne, Miss Towne is a teacher at Gorham, N. H.

The class of 1919, Oxford High School will present the 3 act comedy drama, "Mrs. Compton's Manager," at Robinson Hall, Friday evening, May 10. The proceeds will be used for the graduation fund. The drama will be followed by a dance. Music will be furnished by Shaw's Orchestra of South Paris.

Allen Hill

Manford Palmer of Auburn spent Sunday at his old home, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Ordway.

A number from this place attended the parade at Norway, Friday evening and all pronounced it very good.

Dayton Whitman of Norway visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Randall Herrick and family recently visited her sisters, Mrs. Hattie Rowe and Mrs. Belle Whitman, also her nephew, James L. Wilkie.

All regret the resignation of Ralph C. Parmenter as principal of Oxford High school.

Jennie Cutler is working in Norway for a short time.

Tom Poole, James Wilkie and Edward Bryce have been working for S. R. Yeaton.

Arthur Thompson and family are moving their household goods to Sodom where they will spend the summer.

Gertrude Witham is taking music lessons of Grace Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Francis and son have been visiting Mrs. James Wilkie.

R. F. Whitman is working in Glover's garage.

A beautiful honor roll has been placed in front of the Freeland Holmes library. The roll contains the names of the boys in the service.

NORTH WATERFORD

Rowley Corner

Nearly everybody in this place has had or is having the prevailing grippe. Clyde Nason has been unable to work the past two weeks on account of blood poisoning in his hand. It is healing nicely now and it is expected will soon be well. He has been at Bridgton the past week.

Mrs. Susan Nason is stopping with her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Tubbs, who is still in poor health. Mrs. Nason will be 80 years old her next birthday, but is as smart as many several years younger. She has a goodly lot of knitting this winter. Of course a large part of it for our soldier boys, besides a considerable amount of housework every day. Hazel Nason has been ill the past week with Liberty measles.

Tiger Returned—Lost a Foot. The now famous Tiger has returned to his home at R. R. Nason's after being gone 9 days. George Kimball met him coming home, one fore leg in a fox trap with a rock attached as large a tea kettle. He expressed his gratitude in every way possible when Mr. Kimball released him, then came home exhausted. A dog from lower Blackguard came and enticed him away and it is thought he had been in the trap nearly all the time as his leg was worn so it came off. He now seems in the best of spirits despite the loss of one foot.

Mrs. Sarah Kimball worked for Mrs. Florence Green two days the past week cleaning house.

Road Com., John L. Tubbs and a crew of men are making some improvements on the highways.

M. F. Charles is working on the road.

OTISFIELD GORE

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Freeman and daughter, Irene, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas and children were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Glover in Norway.

Lost Buck was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buck, in North Norway.

Mrs. Cora Green recently visited Mrs. Ruth Brett.

Frederick Robis Grange held their regular meeting Saturday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Wheeler recently visited her daughter, Mrs. Eva Anderson in Oxford.

Alma Dunn, who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Merrill, has returned to her home in Norway.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Mrs. F. L. Wyman has a new piano. Chester Becker has been working for F. L. Wyman for a few days.

F. L. Wyman has been doing a little grafting for North Paris parties.

NEWRY

Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hastings celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at the Grange Hall Friday evening, April 26th. The evening was fine and about 300 guests came to congratulate them and show their good wishes by the numerous presents given. TO MY SISTER
It scarcely seems that fifty years
Have swiftly rolled away,
True has so gently dealt with you
Since your happy wedding day.

We bring to you these gifts of gold,
Silver and crystal clear,
They speak of love and friendship
From friends both far and near.

As up life's rugged hillside
You've lived and walked together,
Roses have strewn full well your path—
Few thorns among them ever.

As you go down its winding way,
Toward the Home of joy above,
May blessings follow all the way,
With friendship true and love.

The guest book was of white and gold with 190 names, a partial list of guests.

If you feel uncomfortable,—gas pressure, heaviness, sour stomach, drowsy, headache,—take a teaspoonful of that honest, old-time prescription, the original "L.F." Atwood's Medicine. It will relieve you quickly and improve your general condition by cleaning your system of impure accumulations so you won't have any disagreeable attacks. Reckon well the cost of things in these war-thrift times; think how cheap this remedy is at only ONE CENT A DOSE. There's no blood-purifier or real corrective of constipation that is more economical and beneficial. Price 50 cents. Buy of your dealer the TRUE "L.F." made by the L. F. Medicine Co., Portland, Me.
